MEMORANDUM

TO: FACULTY AND STAFF

FROM: DAVID KENNEDY

SUBJECT: VISITING SCHOLAR

DATE: FEBRUARY 9, 1999

JENS DROLSHAMMER

The European Law Research Center proudly welcomes Professor Jens Drolshammer this spring semester as a Visiting Scholar and Fellow. He is a senior partner of Homburger Rechtsanwälte in Zürich, Switzerland, specializing in general commercial, company antitrust, EC and international economic law. He is a professor at the University of St. Gallen, mainly teaching comparative law as well as the planning and structuring of complex transactions. In addition, he heads the Master of European and International Business Law MBL-HSG Program and is a member of the Institute of European, Economic and Comparative Law at the University of St. Gallen. While at the Center, Jens will primarily work on a series of essays on "The Changing International Practice of Law" from a European perspective, where he will deepen his professional experience in the legal structuring of multinational service firms, as well as interdisciplinary methods of teaching at the Harvard Business School.

Professor Drolshammer can be reached at 617-496-7490 or by email jdrosh@law.harvard.edu. If you would like to post something, please send it c/o European Law Research Center, Hauser Hall 518, Cambridge, MA 02138.

Welcome!
